Association News

The Michigan Canners' and Freezers' Assn. has moved to new offices at 535 Greenwood S.E., Grand Rapids, Mich.

C. B. Smith of Plymouth has been re-elected president of the Florida Citrus Processors Assn. Other officers re-elected were Earl Newton of Lake Wales, vice president, and J. L. Coates of Winter Haven, treasurer. The association is considering a change of name to Citrus By-Products Assn.

F. H. Wright of Lucius Pitkin, Inc., New York City, has been elected president of the American Council of Independent Laboratories, Inc., Charles C. Wright of Oilwell Research Inc., Long Beach, Calif., was elected vice president/president-elect. Re-elected were Roger W. Truesdail, Truesdail Laboratories, Inc., Los Angeles, Calif., secretary; and George H. Nelson, Law Engineering Testing Co., Atlanta, Ga., treasurer.

The Forty Niners and the Old Guard Society recently held their fall meetings at the Schroeder Hotel in Milwaukee, Wis. Both groups were involved in final plans for activities to take place during the National Canners Assn. and the Canning Machinery and Supplies Assn. meeting to be held in Chicago in January.

John H. Kruepke, 18, is the first place winner of the Wisconsin 1962 canning crops contest sponsored by NJVGA. His beets, grown for the Hartford plant of Libby, McNeill & Libby, won him $150 offered by the Wisconsin Canners Assn. and a chance to compete for regional and national awards.

Eleven scientists were honored at the "Pickle Fair" sponsored by the National Pickle Packers Assn. and held recently at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago. Recognized for their contributions to the advancement of the pickle industry were: Dr. S. K. Ries, Michigan State University; Dr. J. L. Etchells, North Carolina State College; Dr. Ralph Costilow, Michigan State University; Dr. John Bowers, University of Arkansas; Dr. W. C. Barnes, Clemson College; Dr. J. C. Walker, University of Wisconsin; Dr. Howard Potter, Michigan State University; Dr. Irving Pflug, Michigan State University; Dr. C. E. Peterson, Michigan State University; and R. B. Hyde, Canada Dept. of Agriculture.

An Advisory Board of seven members from its membership classifications of brokers, packers, suppliers and warehousemen has been formed by the National Frozen Food Association. The members are: James S. Lawless, Frosted Fruit Products, Los Angeles; Robert J. Gruber, Blue Water Seafoods, Inc., Cleveland; Wallace Blankinship, Stouffer Food Corp., Cleveland; W. E. Berelson, D. B. Berelson & Co., San Francisco; Howard Boerner, H. C. Boerner Co., Great Neck, L.I., N.Y.; Fred M. Deutsch, Marathon Div., American Can Co., Menasha, Wis.; V. C. Stevens, Alford Refrigerated Warehouse, Dallas. The Board will meet with the association's board of directors to help in planning promotions such as the National Frozen Food Week, Fish'n Seafood Month, and in promoting better industry handling practices, national frozen food conventions, and any other projects national in scope.
